Is pleased to

Training Day and Fun
Match.

Saturday, October 25th, 2008

At Glencoe Farm. 122 Hawkins St., Plainville, MA.

Please join us for a fun day of Earthdog training and a 'practice match'. Master will be running in the morning, followed by an introductory training session. A fabulous potluck luncheon will follow and then on to the rest of the fun match with Intro to Quarry, Senior, and Junior. Open to all terriers and any dogs that will fit in a 9" tunnel. We invite you to bring an item for the raffle table and your favorite potluck dish. Once again we will be printing a catalog and you are invited to place an advertisement as a means of sponsoring this wonderful event. Don't forget that GBAEC is hosting an AKC sanctioned ED test the next day in N. Andover, MA. This is a great opportunity for last minute training.

Watch for the premium list which will be available after the 1st of October.

Pre-Entries and Day of entries for your convenience.
